

I very much want my local Christian radio station, K-LOVE, to stay on the air. It provides a very positive service to our community. We live in an area with a large Mormon population, and this station serves a large audience of Christian listeners who would be lost without it. It is positive music appropriate for the entire family. It is definitely in the public's best interest that this station remain on the air. Thank you very much.